Museum & Gallery Listings for March 20-26

★ Peter Saul: ‘From Pop to Punk’ (through April 18) This selection of paintings and drawings owned by Allan Frumkin (1927-2002), Mr. Saul’s longtime dealer (30 years), brings a new clarity to Mr. Saul’s early development — when he moved from oil to acrylic and from a garrulous, if lushly painted, variation on Pop Art to paintings that fuse the figurative, the abstract and the scathingly political with a force that has few equals. Venus Over Manhattan, 980 Madison Avenue, at 76th Street, 212-980-0700, venusovermanhattan.com.
